FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

20. Plaintiff LENYN BLADERIN LANZA HERRERA was employed by CANARSIE MARKET II CORP., as a stocker, order taker, laborer and packer while performing related miscellaneous duties for the Defendants, from in or around June 2015 until in or around April 2023.
21. Plaintiff LENYN BLADERIN LANZA HERRERA regularly worked six (6) days per week during the relevant statutory period.

22. During the relevant statutory period, Plaintiff regularly worked a schedule of shifts beginning at:

- i. approximately 8:00 a.m. each workday and regularly ending at approximately 8:00 p.m. or later, three (3) days per week; and from 8:00 a.m. each workday and regularly ending at approximately 6:00 p.m. or later, three days per week, from in or around June 2017 until in or around December 2019; and

23. Thus, Plaintiff was regularly required to work approximately sixty-six (66) hours or more hours each week from in or around June 2017 until in or around December 2019 and approximately sixty (60) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2020 until in or around April 2023.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of themselves, and other employees similarly situated as authorized under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). The employees similarly situated are hereafter, the "Collective Class."
32. Collective Class: All persons who are or have been employed by the Defendants as stockers, order takers, laborers, packers or any other similarly titled personnel with substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, who were performing the same sort of functions for Defendants, other than the executive and management positions, who have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay required overtime wages.
33. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed approximately 10 to 15 employees or more during the relevant statutory period who Defendants subject(ed) to similar unlawful payment structures that violated applicable law.
34. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff - and the Collective Class - to regularly work more than forty hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation.

35. Defendants' unlawful conduct herein has been widespread, repeated, and consistent.
36. Defendants had knowledge that the Plaintiff and the Collective Class regularly performed work requiring overtime pay.
37. Defendants' conduct as set forth in this Complaint, was willful and in bad faith - and has caused significant damages to Plaintiff, as well as the Collective Class.
38. Defendants are liable under the FLSA for failing to properly compensate Plaintiff, and the Collective Class, and as such, notice should be sent to the Collective Class. There are numerous similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants who have been denied overtime pay and proper minimum wage pay in violation of the FLSA and NYLL, who would benefit from the issuance of a Court-supervised notice of the present lawsuit, and the opportunity to join the present lawsuit. Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendants and are readily identifiable through Defendants' records.
39. The questions of law and fact common to the putative class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members.
40. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the whole putative class.
41. Plaintiff and their counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the putative class.
